

CALME

Workstation pods

The Calme workstation pods are practical, personal spaces, designed specially to give the user the calm and confidentiality that they need. Perfect to concentrate, make confidential phone calls or to simply relax, the Calme pods allow the user to concentrate themselves and escape from the agitation of the coworking environment.

Several versions with desk or bench : standing or sitting, the single or Duo workstation pods offer a secluded space to communicate and concentrate while increasing productivity and employees well being at work.
